

STUDENT RIGHTS AND CONDUCT

Student behavioral expectations are established through the Standards of Student Conduct and implemented through applicable Administrative Procedures, which are guided by Board Policies. These procedures define standards of conduct, outline student rights, and describe the processes used to address conduct and grievance matters in a fair and consistent manner. Students are expected to be familiar with and adhere to these standards and procedures, which promote accountability and protect due process within the campus community.

For additional information, please visit the Student Rights and Conduct website: <https://msjc.edu/studentrightsandconduct/>

- Administrative Procedures 5500 Standards of Student Conduct (<https://catalog.msjc.edu/general-regulations/student-rights-and-conduct/administrative-procedures-5500-standards-student-conduct/>)
- Administrative Procedures 5520 Student Discipline Procedures (<https://catalog.msjc.edu/general-regulations/student-rights-and-conduct/administrative-procedures-5520-student-discipline-procedures/>)
- AP 5530 Student Rights and Grievances (<https://catalog.msjc.edu/general-regulations/student-rights-and-conduct/ap-5530-student-rights-and-grievances/>)
- Discrimination and Harassment Complaint (<https://catalog.msjc.edu/general-regulations/student-rights-and-conduct/discrimination-and-harassment-complaint/>)